

The Power & Control group are paid and voluntary members of Elfrida Society.

They work closely with Islington Council to share the views of other adults with learning disabilities.

They help Islington Council make sure the information they provide is accessible and can be easily understood by everyone.

The group also campaign to help make improvements to people's lives.

The Power & Control group plays a very important role and are proud to be part of Council meetings to represent the views of our community.
