

You should only call 999 if...

Someone is in immediate danger

Someone, or their property, has been seriously harmed

A crime is happening, or has been committed and the suspects are nearby

A road traffic collision has happened where life is at risk or the road is blocked

To report crimes that are not emergencies, you can:

 Call 101  Call Crimestoppers  Report online